Prayer in times of pestilence

Stella caeli exstirpavit
 Quae lactavit Dominum
 Mortis pestem quam plantavit
 Primus parens hominum.

 Ipsa Stella nunc dignetur
 Sidera compescere,
 Quorum bella plebem caedunt
 Dirae mortis ulcere.

 O gloriosa Stella Maris
 A peste succurre nobis;
 Audi nos, nam te Filius
 Nihil negans honorat.

 Salva nos Jesu pro quibus
 Virgo mater te orat!

The Star of Heaven that nourished the Lord drove away the plague of death which the first parents of man brought into the world. May this bright Star now vouchsafe to extinguish that foul constellation whose battles have slain the people with the wound of death.

O most pious Star of the Sea, preserve us from pestilence; hear us, O Lady, for Thy Son honors Thee by denying Thee nothing. Save us, O Jesus, for whom Thy Virgin Mother supplicates Thee.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Thank you so much to everyone who has contributed to the Toy & Joy Makers toy drive! This weekend will be the last weekend we collect toys for this year since Christmas will take place the following Friday.

Here's a "repeat" from last week: A few people have asked me about morning Mass on December 24th. We will have Mass as usual at 9:00am in the chapel. This is the Mass for December 24th, but not technically a "Christmas Eve" Mass. The first Christmas Eve Mass at St. Birgitta's will be the English Mass at 7:30pm.

For all those coming to Christmas Eve/Day Masses, please make sure you arrive early. We will be singing carols before each of the Christmas Eve/Day Masses, with carols for the midnight Mass starting at 11:30pm. There's still room at our English Masses (Christmas Eve at 7:30pm and Christmas Day at 8:00am) so let me know if you are not on the list and would like to come.

A parishioner kindly gave us copies of "Celebrate Life" magazine, which we have left in the vestibule. Please feel free to take all the copies you'd like.

For New Year's Day (which is on a Friday this year) we will be having an English Mass at 9:00am in the church and then a Latin Mass at 10:30am, also in the church. If you would like to come to either of these Masses, please let me know (indicating which Mass you'd like to go to) and I will put you on the list.

Have a beautiful week and a blessed conclusion to the Advent season!

God bless,

Fr. Clifton
