Prayer in times of pestilence

Stella caeli exstirpavit
 Quae lactavit Dominum
 Mortis pestem quam plantavit
 Primus parens hominum.
 Ipsa Stella nunc dignetur
 Sidera compescere,
 Quorum bella plebem caedunt
 Dirae mortis ulcere.
 O gloriosa Stella Maris
 A peste succurre nobis;
 Audi nos, nam te Filius
 Nihil negans honorat.
 Salva nos Jesu pro quibus
 Virgo mater te orat!

The Star of Heaven that nourished the Lord drove away the plague of death which the first parents of man brought into the world. May this bright Star now vouchsafe to extinguish that foul constellation whose battles have slain the people with the wound of death.

O most pious Star of the Sea, preserve us from pestilence; hear us, O Lady, for Thy Son honors Thee by denying Thee nothing. Save us, O Jesus, for whom Thy Virgin Mother supplicates Thee.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I hope that everyone is having a blessed Holy Week. This last weekend we had a wonderful turn-out for Adoration, confessions and the procession. We even had palms to give out and if you haven't received any yet, don't worry: we still have plenty and we'd be happy to distribute them to you next time you're here.

I've been adding more emails to the list as I've been receiving them. I'm sorry if I didn't respond to some emails. All responses on Outlook come back as one thread so I had missed a few, but I think I've gone back and responded to all the ones I missed. If you have emailed me and haven't heard back in a few days, try emailing me again.

I'm going to be out of the office Easter Monday through Wednesday. I'll still be checking my email to see if there is anything urgent, but I won't be responding to most emails until Thursday. As usual, if there is a life-threatening emergency, you can call the parish office and hit "5" to connect to me. And of course, I will be celebrating Mass as usual during those days.

I want to take this moment to thank everyone for your great generosity in supporting the parish. We have been receiving envelopes in the mail and on Sundays, plus a great many messages assuring us of prayers. Tough times and chastisements have a way of revealing the true nature of a community and it has been a tremendous blessing for me to witness the great faith of our people and the love you all have for Our Lord and our parish. I want to mention in particular how grateful I am for Ena who has continued working here in the office and who has been a tremendous help on Sundays directing traffic and individual penitents for confessions. I also want to thank Randy who has been a huge help as sacristan and Stephen and Jessica Robinson for their help with the procession chant. I also extend my thanks to other volunteers who have ensured that everything continues to run smoothly here at St. Birgitta's. It has filled me with great joy to see our community at this time. I will never forget seeing our parishioners processing in the sunshine past the blossoming vines and trees while appealing to God for mercy as we have for centuries in times of need. For all of the important work being done in the midst of this pandemic, it is the spiritual response to what is at heart an event of spiritual significance that is paramount.

Lent has drawn to a close, the Triduum has begun and with this Sunday, we enter into the great feast of Easter. After a time of penance comes joy. After death comes resurrection. In the midst of the trials and consolations of this world we see laid out for us the great pattern of hope. "For we are buried together with him by baptism into death; that as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life." (Rom 6:4)

This Easter may God abundantly bless all of you and all of your families and friends.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Clifton
